Monday, February 13, 2017 -- HOLLYWOOD, CA - "La La Land," "Moana" and "Zootopia" have been named to receive the 6th Annual Made in Hollywood Honors (MIHH) by the Los Angeles City Council and six major entertainment organizations who partner in the recognition of Oscar® nominees that support production in Hollywood and throughout California.

Hosted by Los Angeles City Councilmember Mitch O'Farrell, the ceremony will be held on Thursday, February 16, at the Heart of Hollywood Terrace, 1600 Vine Street, Hollywood, 90028. Red carpet arrivals begin at 8:15 a.m., and the presentations start promptly at 9 a.m.

The MIHH program salutes films nominated for Academy Awards® for Best Picture or Best Animated Feature produced and filmed in California. The event is in collaboration with Councilmember O'Farrell, SAG-AFTRA, the California Film Commission, Film L.A., Teamsters Local 399, the Film Musicians Secondary Markets Fund and the Producers Guild of America, together with MIHH partner and co-sponsor, 1600 VINE and its managing partner, Klein Financial Corporation.

Jazmyn Simon, star of the hit HBO series "Ballers" is set to emcee. In November 2016, the show announced that it will be moving its production from Florida to California by way of the expanded tax credit program that went into effect in 2015. The show's third season is currently filming in the Greater Los Angeles area.

MIHH was established in 2011, and since then, five of the honorees have gone on to win Oscars for Best Picture or Best Animated Feature: "The Artist," "Argo," "Frozen," "Big Hero 6" and "Inside Out."
